

Argon & Co strengthens its global logistics capability

Paris, January 17th 2023

Argon & Co, the global management consultancy that specialises in operations strategy and transformation, is delighted to announce that it has been joined by logistics consultancy Fuzzy LogX.

This move represents another step in Argon & Co's expansion strategy, building on its existing global logistics capability by enhancing its expertise and scale.

Based in Australia, Fuzzy LogX has a market leading proposition in intralogistics, with expertise in warehouse automation and technology, and proven track record of delivering large client engagements. Like Argon & Co, their in-depth market knowledge delivers process improvements and lasting results for clients around the globe.

Paul Eastwood, Managing Partner of Argon & Co Australia and New Zealand (ANZ) stated "I am thrilled Fuzzy LogX are joining Argon & Co, their intralogistics capabilities are the best in the ANZ region. Combined with our wider logistics, operations, and supply chain capabilities, we can turbo-charge our end-to-end offering to clients."

Fuzzy LogX Partners, Bas Schilders and Jeffrey Triantafilo will actively lead the ANZ intralogistics service, as well as working side-by-side with the Argon & Co global offices to further develop the global logistics proposition.

Bas Schilders stated "We are excited to begin this new chapter. Fuzzy LogX has earned its place as the de facto intralogistics consultancy in ANZ by focusing on our client's needs and being part of Argon & Co will give our clients access to an impressive array of complementary services."

Jeff Triantafilo added "This is a great opportunity for us to provide specialist services to new clients, to improve their warehouse efficiency. We are now positioned to build a brighter future together for our consultants and clients."

Yvan Salamon, CEO of Argon & Co, concluded, "The addition of the Fuzzy LogX team and expertise bolsters Argon & Co's existing logistics service with unsurpassed intralogistics capabilities across the ANZ marketplace. This step reinforces our global expansion strategy and brings with it further opportunities to grow value for our clients."
